

5 Things I've Observed & Questioned On The True "Free" Market

Observation/Question 1:

"In today's society, you are only as free, as your purchasing power." - Roxanne Meadows
In a true or enlightened capitalist free market (acknowledged, we're not in one now) it still creates wage slaves, because if you don't work for money, you starve in that system too.

Why must humans PAY to survive on this planet?

Observation/Question 2:

The Free Market directly lead to crony capitalism & government based monopolies, through this monetary system.

"What happens when the "Invisible Hand", gives you the finger?" - George Carlin

Observation/Question 3:

Even in the Free Market someone has to create capital/money.

Who could we trust to create it?

Observation/Question 4:

We live on just one finite planet, with many finite resources. The True Free Market is based on infinite desires & infinite growth.

How can this be sustained?

Observation/Question 5:

Money buys ALL State violence, few would be psychopathic enough to commit violence for nothing, if their needs were provided for.

Take money out of the equation & who would commit state violence?

Paul Stamets: 6 ways mushrooms can save the world

"The Venus Project is neither Utopian nor Orwellian, nor does it reflect the dreams of impractical idealists. Instead, it presents attainable goals requiring only the intelligent application of what we already know. The only limitations are those which we impose upon ourselves. It is much better to bring nations of the world together, not to kill those who do not agree with you." - Jacque Fresco

'Our deepest fear is not that we are inadequate. Our deepest fear is that we are powerful beyond imagination. It is our light more than our darkness which scares us. We ask ourselves – who are we to be brilliant, beautiful, talented, and fabulous. But honestly, who are you to not be so? While we allow our light to shine, we unconsciously give permission for others to do the same. When we liberate ourselves from our own fears, simply our presence may liberate others.' - Marianne Williamson

"The Earth is the cradle of the mind, but one cannot eternally live in a cradle." – Konstantin E. Tsiolkovsky

Psychopaths run our world, & we let them, by believing in money, which they print out of thin air, to fund our oppression, for our own good. - Me
